Must. Have.

THURSDAY

Things that need to happen:

- Bedikas chametz (search for chametz)

To prep:

- Post-fast arrangements (siyum/break-fast)

Tip: Don't wrap the chametz pieces in foil, it won't burn in the fire, rather wrap them in a tissue or napkin (no cling wrap, when plastic burns it creates harmful toxins)

OTHER STUFF

Other things to think about:

- Open boxes of Matzah (often the boxes are taped shut, and the tape has writing on it.)
- Make sure hagaddos are at the home where you'll be eating the seder.
- Open wine bottles/grape juice/drinks in advance (make sure you have a Pesach corkscrew!)
- Set timer on lights, AC, and hot plates (don't forget seder night ends late so set accordingly!)
- Light a 3-day candle (this can also be used for havdala on seder night.)
